  - (a) Signature during the period 1 February to 31 August 2008, followed by ratification, acceptance or approval by 30 September 2008; or
  - (b) Signature during the period 1 February to 31 August 2008 and notification of provisional application (this may be the fastest procedure for new Members), followed by ratification, acceptance or approval;
  - (c) Accession (this option is only available after the deadline for signature has passed and once the Council has established conditions for accession).

4. The ICO has prepared the original of the Agreement which will be open for signature from 1 February 2008, and will distribute two certified true copies of the ICA 2007 to each State eligible to become a Member (i.e. Contracting Parties to the ICA 2001 and Governments invited to attend the 98th Session at which the 2007 Agreement was negotiated – see Annex III). Electronic copies can also be downloaded from the ICO website at the following link: www.ico.org/documents/ica2007-certified.pdf. In the case of the European Community, this information will be sent to the representative of the EC.

Signature

5. Signature indicates the intention of a Government to apply the Agreement. Article 40 of the ICA 2007 provides that it will be open for signature at the Depositary Headquarters from 1 February 2008 to 31 August 2008. It should be noted that a Government only becomes a Contracting Party to the ICA 2007 after ratifying, accepting or approving it.

Steps for signature of the ICA 2007 are summarized as follows:

- (a) Prepare an instrument of Full Powers for the proposed signatory in accordance with the section on Full Powers below and Annex IV.
- (b) Deliver instrument of Full Powers by hand, mail, fax or scanned copy by email to the ICO headquarters in London for advance review (at least three days in advance is suggested).
- (c) Make an appointment with the Depositary Office of the ICO to sign the Agreement (during the period that the Agreement is open for signature).
- (d) Attend the appointment and present the original instrument of Full Powers (if sent by fax or scanned copy by email previously).
- (e) Signature ceremony for the ICA 2007.
- (f) The ICO, in its capacity as Depositary, will notify Members and non-member Governments about this action.

Full Powers

6. In international law, a Head of State, Head of Government or Foreign Minister may sign a treaty in his or her own right. Anyone else needs to produce “Full Powers” signed by one of those three representatives. Full Powers can take time to produce so they should be prepared well in advance of the proposed date of signature of the Agreement (at least three days in advance is suggested). The UN Treaty Section advises that Full Powers must include the following (see model in Annex IV):

- It must be signed by either the Head of State, Head of Government, or Minister for Foreign Affairs.
- The signature must be legible.
- It should indicate the title of the treaty.
- Full Powers must state the full name and title of the representative authorized to sign.
- Date and place of signature must be indicated.
- Official seal (optional, but cannot replace the signature of one of the three authorized authorities).

Ratification, acceptance or approval

7. The ICA 2007 requires ratification, acceptance or approval by Governments which have signed it and intend to apply it. Under the provisions of Article 40, Members should deposit their instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval with the Depository by 30 September 2008. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval must be signed by the Head of State or Government, or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, and deposited with the Depository. A model instrument, which may be adapted as appropriate, is attached as Annex V. The UN Treaty Section notes that instruments must include:

- Title, date and place of conclusion of treaty.
- Full name and title of the person signing the instrument (i.e. the Head of State, Head of Government or Minister for Foreign Affairs).
- An unambiguous expression of the intent of the Government to consider itself bound by the treaty and to undertake faithfully to observe and implement its provisions.
- Date and place where the instrument was issued.
- Signature of the Head of State, Head of Government or Minister for Foreign Affairs (the official seal is not sufficient).

Steps for ratification, acceptance or approval to the Agreement are as follows:

- (a) Following signature of the ICA 2007, prepare instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval (as applicable) in accordance with model in Annex V.
- (b) Instrument is signed by Head of State or Government, or Minister for Foreign Affairs.
- (c) Deliver the instrument by hand, mail, fax or scanned copy to the ICO.
- (d) If the instrument is faxed or sent as a scanned copy to the ICO, deliver the original instrument to the Organization as soon as possible thereafter.
- (e) The ICO will examine the instrument to ensure it is in due and proper form.
- (f) The ICO will notify Members and non-member Governments about this action.

Notification of provisional application

8. Similar wording to that of the model instrument in Annex V, adapted as appropriate, may be used for notifications of provisional application.

Accession

9. Accession is generally used by States wishing to express their consent to be bound by a treaty where the deadline for signature has passed. The Council will review the situation of membership in September 2008, and may decide at that point to establish procedures for accession, in accordance with Article 43.

Depositary notifications

10. The ICO will advise all interested Parties, by means of Depositary Notifications, about actions relating to the ICA 2007. Parties eligible to sign the new Agreement have been invited to confirm the contact details for communications relating to the ICA 2007, such as the Treaty Sections or Legal Offices of their Ministries of Foreign Affairs (see documents ED-2029/07 for Members, and ED-2030/07 for non-member countries). Where specific contact details have not been provided, information will be sent to the designated contacts for the countries concerned, for transmission to Ministries of Foreign Affairs. Where contact details have been provided, copies of correspondence will be sent to the designated country contact.

Further information

11. The website of the ICO includes a section containing copies of all relevant documents such as certified true copies of the ICA 2007, the status on the ICA 2007, Depositary Notifications, etc. (see www.ico.org/ica2007.asp).
